

Microsoft Qualified Educational User Definition (US Only)

All Microsoft eligible education customers must be located or reside in the United States. Qualified Educational Users are those entities that both have an educational purpose or mission and meet the criteria specified below. If a controversy exists as to an organization's eligibility, Microsoft retains the right to determine in its sole discretion the eligibility of the organization for the specific transaction in question. The following are eligible to acquire Microsoft academic edition products in the programs indicated and are defined as qualified educational users:

QUALIFIED EDUCATIONAL USERS:	ELIGIBLE PROGRAMS:
A) Educational Institutions Defined as an accredited institution organized and operated exclusively for the purpose of teaching its enrolled students ("Educational Institutions"). An accredited institution must be: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. All United States territories such as Puerto Rico, Guam, and Virgin Islands are not eligible under this definition.

Special note regarding Hospitals, Healthcare Systems, Federal Government Military Schools/Training Facilities, and Research Laboratories:

Hospitals, healthcare systems and research laboratories (including independent research laboratories or research laboratories affiliated with an eligible education customer or government agency) are NOT eligible to acquire academic edition products unless they are wholly owned and operated by a qualified Educational Institution as defined above in Sections A and B. "Wholly owned and operated" means that the Educational Institution is the sole owner of said hospital, healthcare system or research laboratory and the only entity exercising control over said institution's day-to-day operations. Eligible hospitals, healthcare systems, and research laboratories are NOT permitted to purchase under a School Agreement and are NOT permitted to be included as part of an Educational Institution's School Agreement even if they are wholly owned and operated by the Educational Institution. Military schools or other training facilities operated by the United States federal government that do not grant degrees are not eligible to acquire academic edition products.
